Brent River College theatre trip

To Kill a Mockingbird
Wednesday 21st September
Gielgud Theatre, Shaftesbury Ave, London W1D 6AR

On the Journey

- When you get to the station, work out your route. Find the nearest station and then work out which Tube lines to take and where to change.
- Pick up a free newspaper and find an article that you like or something interesting that you can feedback to the teacher or staff about.

At the Theatre

- Take photos of the theatre from the outside and get in the photos to show you were there
- Find your seats and make yourself comfortable.
- At the break, go and explore (with your teacher). Take photos of the nice décor.
- Come back to seats early after the break and discuss the first half of the play. Ask any questions if you missed anything.
- At the end, take a photo of your group in front the stage – politely ask someone to take it for you.

Write a Review

Once the trip is over or on the way home, discuss the play. Then write a review about it. Here are some tips to help you write the review:

- About the trip; who went, when, where (name of play, name of theatre, town) and how you got there
- What the play was about (just a short paragraph will do)
- How was the journey to and from the theatre?
- Did you enjoy the play?
- What were the best parts and what was the worse?
- How did the play make you feel?
- What was the venue like?
- Would you recommend other people to go to see the play?
- Give the play a star rating .
